Travelling by air.

Switzerland’s main airports link perfectly to the country’s outstanding public transport network. In Geneva and Zurich, a railway station is located right inside the airport. Trains leave for the city centre every few minutes, taking passengers there within just roughly ten minutes. Additionally, comfortable trains operate to most other Swiss cities at half-hour intervals. Basel and Berne offer a regular and excellently functioning bus service between their airports and city centres. Basel, Zurich and Geneva all provide a rail ticket counter right at the airport to facilitate ticket purchases for the clients. The journey from and to the airport is included in any Swiss Travel System ticket.

More comfortable without luggage

Using public transport is the fastest and most reliable way to travel around Switzerland. If flying to Zurich Airport, the clients’ luggage can be seamlessly transported from any airport in the world to the destination railway station or destination address in Switzerland. For more information about this unique service, please refer to page 80 or access: sbb.ch/luggage.

General information.

Travelling can be so simple.

Changing transportation is wonderfully easy in Switzerland. That's because train, bus, boat and mountain railway are perfectly coordinated. Always according to the motto: arriving, changing transportation, travelling on – wherever the journey may go. mystsnet.com/reasonwhy

Good to know: Carefree travelling.

The following basic information will help to understand how public transport in Switzerland works and to take the right decisions during the planning process for a journey.

Public transport network

The Swiss public transport network includes over 29,000 kilometres (18,000 miles) of rail, road and waterway and thus is the densest network in the world.

Harmonised timetable – guaranteed connections

At border stations and airports, connecting trains and buses guarantee a seamless onward journey. Connections are guaranteed in all places. Where no rail service is available, the journey continues by bus, boat or even mountain railway.

Regular-interval timetable

Trains always leave at the same minute after each full hour. Main inter-city connections run at half-hour intervals. At major hubs, trains arrive every full and half hour. Postbus and boat connections are perfectly coordinated with these regular-interval timetables. The complete timetable is available on sbb.ch.

Train categories

- InterCity (IC) trains connect the larger cities without intermediate stops.
- InterRegio (IR) and RegioExpress (RE) trains connect the medium-sized centres in Switzerland. Regional trains serve all intermediate stations and additionally provide access to all branches of the network.
- Major urban centres have their own suburban railway (S-Bahn) network. The trains, specially marked with an "S", optimally serve the urban and suburban areas with a high-frequency timetable.

Coach classes

1st class coaches provide additional amenities like wider seats, more legroom and electrical power outlets. Furthermore, 1st class passengers benefit from quiet zones on the train.

Seat reservations

- In Switzerland, the majority of trains do not require seat reservations. Trains offering seat reservations are indicated with an "R" in the timetable on sbb.ch.
- For panoramic trains with mandatory seat reservations, reservations should be made at the earliest convenience.
- Group reservations (10 or more persons) can be made via plabe.gruppen@sbb.ch. Information signs and loudspeaker announcements on the train notify travellers of reserved seats.

Surcharge

No surcharge applies on national, InterCity or InterRegio trains within Switzerland. Panoramic trains like the Glacier Express or the Bernina Express, as well as some Postbus lines (Palm Express), are usually subject to surcharge and/or require seat reservations.

Rail traffic information

Information about the current traffic situation and possible disruptions on the rail network is available around the clock via sbb.ch/166 (German only).

Route highlights.

Landwasser Viaduct.

The 65-metre (213 feet) high Landwasser Viaduct, coming into view shortly before the village Filisur, is the most spectacular bridge construction on the Albula Line between Thusis and St. Moritz. The viaduct is made from natural stone and has a length of 142 metres (466 feet). It spans the pristine Landwasser Valley in a bold curve – and dives right into a tunnel.

UNESCO World Heritage RhB.

Since July 2008, the Rhaetian Railway in the Albula/Bernina area has been a UNESCO World Heritage site. The railway route between Thusis (Grisons/CH) and Tirano (Valtellina/IT) is an excellent example of the technically innovative development of the mountain landscape. As Europe's highest altitude Alpine transversal, it is also one of the most spectacular railway routes in the world.

Bernina Glaciers.

Three impressive glaciers are among the highlights of the journey. In the Montebello curve, a view of the Morteratsch Glacier is revealed. The open crossing of the Bernina Pass at 2,253 metres (7,392 feet) a.s.l. with a view of the Cambrena Glacier is another marvellous experience. Alp Grüm may well be the only hotel solely accessible by train or on foot. During a photo stop, visitors savour the wonderful view of the Palü Glacier and the Bernina massif.

Lago di Poschiavo (Lake Poschiavo).

The lake has been dammed up by a pre-historic rockslide. There is no man-made dam in the valley, just a water reservoir at the south end, which serves to control the water drain. Le Prese and Miralago, two small villages and popular vacation spots, sit right at Lago di Poschiavo. At Valposchiavo, the Bernina Express train tracks lead right along the lakeshore.

Circular Viaduct Brusio.

The Circular Viaduct is the most memorable landmark along the Bernina Line. Below Brusio, the Bernina Express negotiates a full altitudinal belt in one double loop of roughly 100 metres (328 feet) diameter each – without a single tunnel. The open route plan over the viaduct opens the view onto this masterpiece of railway technology as well as a breathtaking panorama.

A breath of fresh air on Bernina Express.

On the section between Davos Platz and Tirano, guests of the Bernina Express may choose to enjoy open coaches. The windowless open-air coaches intensify the experience of nature. Great pictures of the stunning landscape – without any window reflections – are guaranteed.

Route highlights.

Lucerne City.

The city counting some 80,000 inhabitants is the starting point of the Gotthard Panorama Express. This popular tourist location thrives on the contrast between history and modern age. In particular, the Chapel Bridge, built in 1356, and the grand hotel buildings from the 19th century characterise the cityscape of Lucerne.

Rütli.

A steamboat or motor vessel takes visitors from Lucerne past this idyllic forest glade. This is where, as tradition has it, the Swiss Confederation historically originated: In 1291, representatives of Switzerland’s three founding cantons are said to have sworn the “Rütlibund”, an oath of alliance and allegiance, and thus to have founded Switzerland. The Rütli is closed to traffic but is accessible by boat or else on foot along the Path of Switzerland.

Baroque church of Wassen.

After passengers have changed from the boat to the 1st class panoramic train in Flüelen, the train traverses the Urner Reuss Valley. At Wassen, the railway line makes a double loop. This part of the route is famous for passing the beautiful church of Wassen, situated on a slightly elevated spot, no fewer than three times. Thus, the church can be admired from three different angles: from below, up close and above.

Gotthard Tunnel.

The 15-kilometre (9-mile) long Gotthard Train Tunnel between Göschenen and Airolo took ten years to complete (1872 to 1882) and was internationally acclaimed as a pioneering achievement for its time. The tunnel breakthrough took place on Sunday, 29 February 1880. Nearly 200 workers lost their lives during the tunnel construction. During the passage, a short multimedia show lets this time come to life again.

Castles of Bellinzona.

On the southern side of the Gotthard massif, after the Riviera Valley, the three imposing castles of Bellinzona come into view – the Castelgrande, Montebello and Sasso Corbaro. The castles were built in the 15th century by the Dukes of Milan and together comprise a unique UNESCO World Heritage site.

Lugano.

The journey on the Gotthard Panorama Express comes to an end in Lugano, city of Mediterranean flair. The economic and touristic centre of Tessin fascinates visitors with many beautiful buildings, grand palaces and well-maintained parks. The old town, the lakeside and the mountains Monte San Salvatore and Monte Brè, offering wonderful views, are within easy reach.

Luzern-Interlaken Express.

Luzern-Interlaken Express

A view onto five crystal clear lakes, a fantastic Alpine panorama and impressive waterfalls: On this nearly two-hour train ride of superlatives (part of the GoldenPass Line) guests experience a pleasant and relaxing journey over the Brünig pass. Since 1888, tourists have been transported in a truly elegant way from the centre of Lucerne to the most important departure points for excursions into the Swiss Alps. Enjoying the comforts of top modern trains, including large panoramic windows, guests travel in a pleasant and relaxing manner and arrive refreshed at their destination. During the train ride, delicious dishes are available in the rolling à-la-carte restaurant “Bistro”.

Good to know

“LiveGuide” app: With this digital travel companion, the train ride between Lucerne and Interlaken becomes an even more diverting adventure. Guests learn a lot about the highlights of the region. Route highlights.

Five lakes in just under two hours.

Few other routes pass these many lakes: Shortly after leaving Lucerne, Lake Lucerne and Lake Alpnach come into view on the left-hand side, followed by Lake Sarnen and the idyllic Lake Lungern. For the last half hour of the train ride, the route leads along Lake Brienz, shimmering in beautiful turquoise. The journey ends in Interlaken, situated between Lakes Brienz and Thun.

Brünig safari: great travel fun with animal company.

During the summer months, 13 life-size animals made of wood wait to be discovered between Meiringen and Giswil. Who will be able to spot the hand-carved likenesses of native wild animals first? All have been placed in their natural habitats in such a way that alert safari travellers can detect them right from the train. The keenest among the nature observers may even be lucky enough to spot real animals such as squirrels or even a family of chamois.

Bistro: the rolling à-la-carte restaurant.

Whether breakfast offers, regularly changing lunch menus or themed culinary specialities: whatever the hungry traveller’s heart’s desire, the dining car teams provide it. Guests that are not seated in the Bistro can use the “BistroOrder” app to order drinks and small snacks directly to the seat.

Jungfrauoch – Top of Europe.

It is undeniably one of the highlights of any trip to Switzerland: the Jungfrauoch – Top of Europe. For more than 100 years now, the Jungfrau Railway has been making its journey up to the highest-altitude railway station in Europe. At 3,454 metres (11,332 feet) altitude, it is right at the heart of the UNESCO World Heritage site “Jungfrau-Aletsch”. From the viewing terraces “Sphinx” and “Plateau”, or from the Aletsch glacier itself, an amazing, high Alpine wonder world of eternal snow and ice reveals itself. The “Ice Palace” with its sculptures and its enchanted flair is also well worth a visit. For more background on the history of the century old Jungfrau Railway, the “Alpine Sensation” adventure tour is a must.

Top attractions

- Station Eismeer and Jungfrau panorama.
- Sphinx viewing terrace at 3,571 metres (11,716 feet) altitude.

Sphinx and Aletsch Glacier, Jungfrauoch, Bernese Oberland

Mountain highlights.

Snow Fun Park.

At the Snow Fun Park, guests can get refreshed and try their hands at various winter sports. “Snowtubing” with pirouettes on an inflated hoop, speeding down the slope on a sledge, zip-lining over eternal ice on the Flying Fox or skiing and snowboarding – all of this is possible in the Snow Fun Park. What’s more, it can be done spontaneously: Equipment is available for renting right there. The ultimate way to experience snow in summer!

Sphinx viewing platform.

Pressing a button, shooting up, enjoying the mountain panorama: It takes the lift a mere 25 seconds to overcome 108 metres (354 feet) altitude and arrive at the viewing platform at 3,571 metres (11,716 feet) a.s.l. Once there, it’s just a matter of inhaling deeply and enjoying the view. Incidentally, Europe’s highest research station is also located at the terrace. It is of paramount importance to environmental scientists, astrophysicists and meteorologists.

Ice Palace.

The more ephemeral – the more beautiful! This is especially true for the “Ice Palace” and its treasures. With ice pick and saw, mountain guides created the halls and corridors in the middle of the Jungfrau firn in the 1930s. Today, artists shape the ice – with a delicate touch. On an icy round tour through this frosty world, guests discover artworks in many niches. Eagles, penguins and bears look like they’ve just solidified into ice, that’s how real they appear. A heart-melting experience, even at minus temperatures.

Alpine Sensation.

Anybody who steps into the 250-metre (820 feet) long corridor leading from the Sphinx hall to the Ice Palace experiences a shiver down the spine. And that’s not only due to the freezing temperatures but also to the memory of the sacrifices that mountain workers made in order to open the Jungfrauoch to railway technology. 30 memorial plaques bear witness of it. The background music causes goose bumps as well: Together with pictures of touristic visionaries, it lets the beginnings of the Jungfrau Railways come to life.

Jungfrau-Panorama.

There are times that one “cannot see the mountain for all the clouds” on Jungfrauoch. That has nothing to do with bad weather, however – on the contrary. Clouds are fascinating. Who hasn’t dreamed of bathing in that fleecy-soft miracle? The Jungfrau Panorama film makes it possible. It offers a 360° panoramic experience of the mountain world, the way it could never be had otherwise – 365 days a year. The camera takes visitors for a dive into the clouds, lets them sink into crevasses and plunge into masses of snow. Independent of what the weather is doing outside.

Rigi – Queen of the Mountains.

This ideal day trip destination rewards visitors with a breathtaking 360° panoramic view over 13 lakes, the majestic Alps and even as far as the Black Forest in neighbouring Germany. Two cog railways – one from Vitznau (this being Europe’s very first mountain railway) and one from Goldau – together with the aerial cableways from Weggis and Kräbel (above Goldau), allow for interesting travel combinations between them. More actively inclined guests may pick and choose from a network of roughly 120 kilometres (75 miles) of hiking trails.

Top attractions

- Queenly round trip: Luzern–Vitznau–Rigi Kulm–Arth-Goldau–Luzern (by boat, cog railway and train).
- Nostalgic steam engine rides in historic salon coaches.
- Guided culinary hiking tours with local guides and regional dishes.
- Sunrise and sunset rides.
